

Macro, Magnifications, & Abstractions

“Macro”-Extreme close-up, usually of small subjects

“Magnification”- The process of causing an object or image to appear larger than it really is, especially by using a lens or microscope. Magnification can often lead to “Abstractions” (see below).

“Abstraction”-The process that isolates the essence of something in a way that requires it to be removed from its representational context.

ImagineBC
Photography
evoke emotion .. inspire change

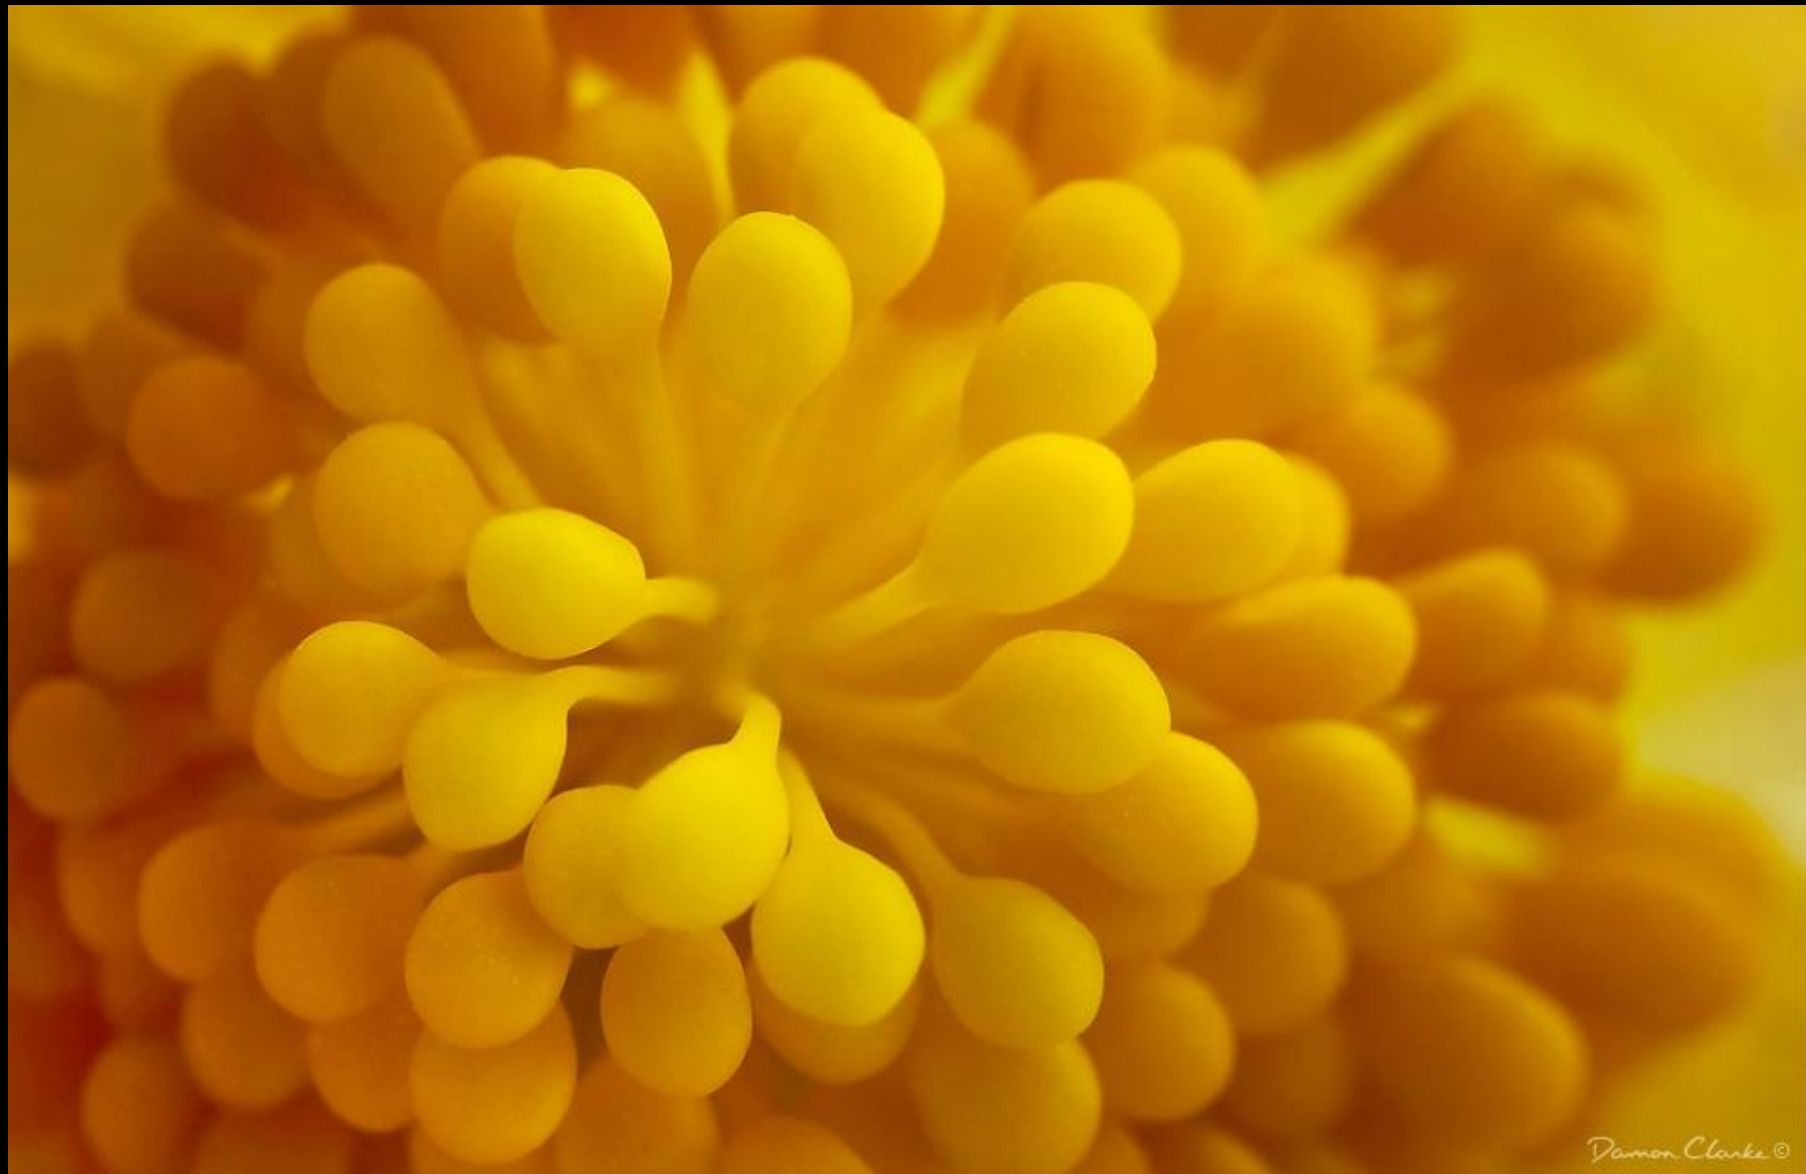

Damon Clarke ©

FREDRIK HOLMSTRÖM
PHOTOGRAPHY

fineart america

E. C. C.
2010

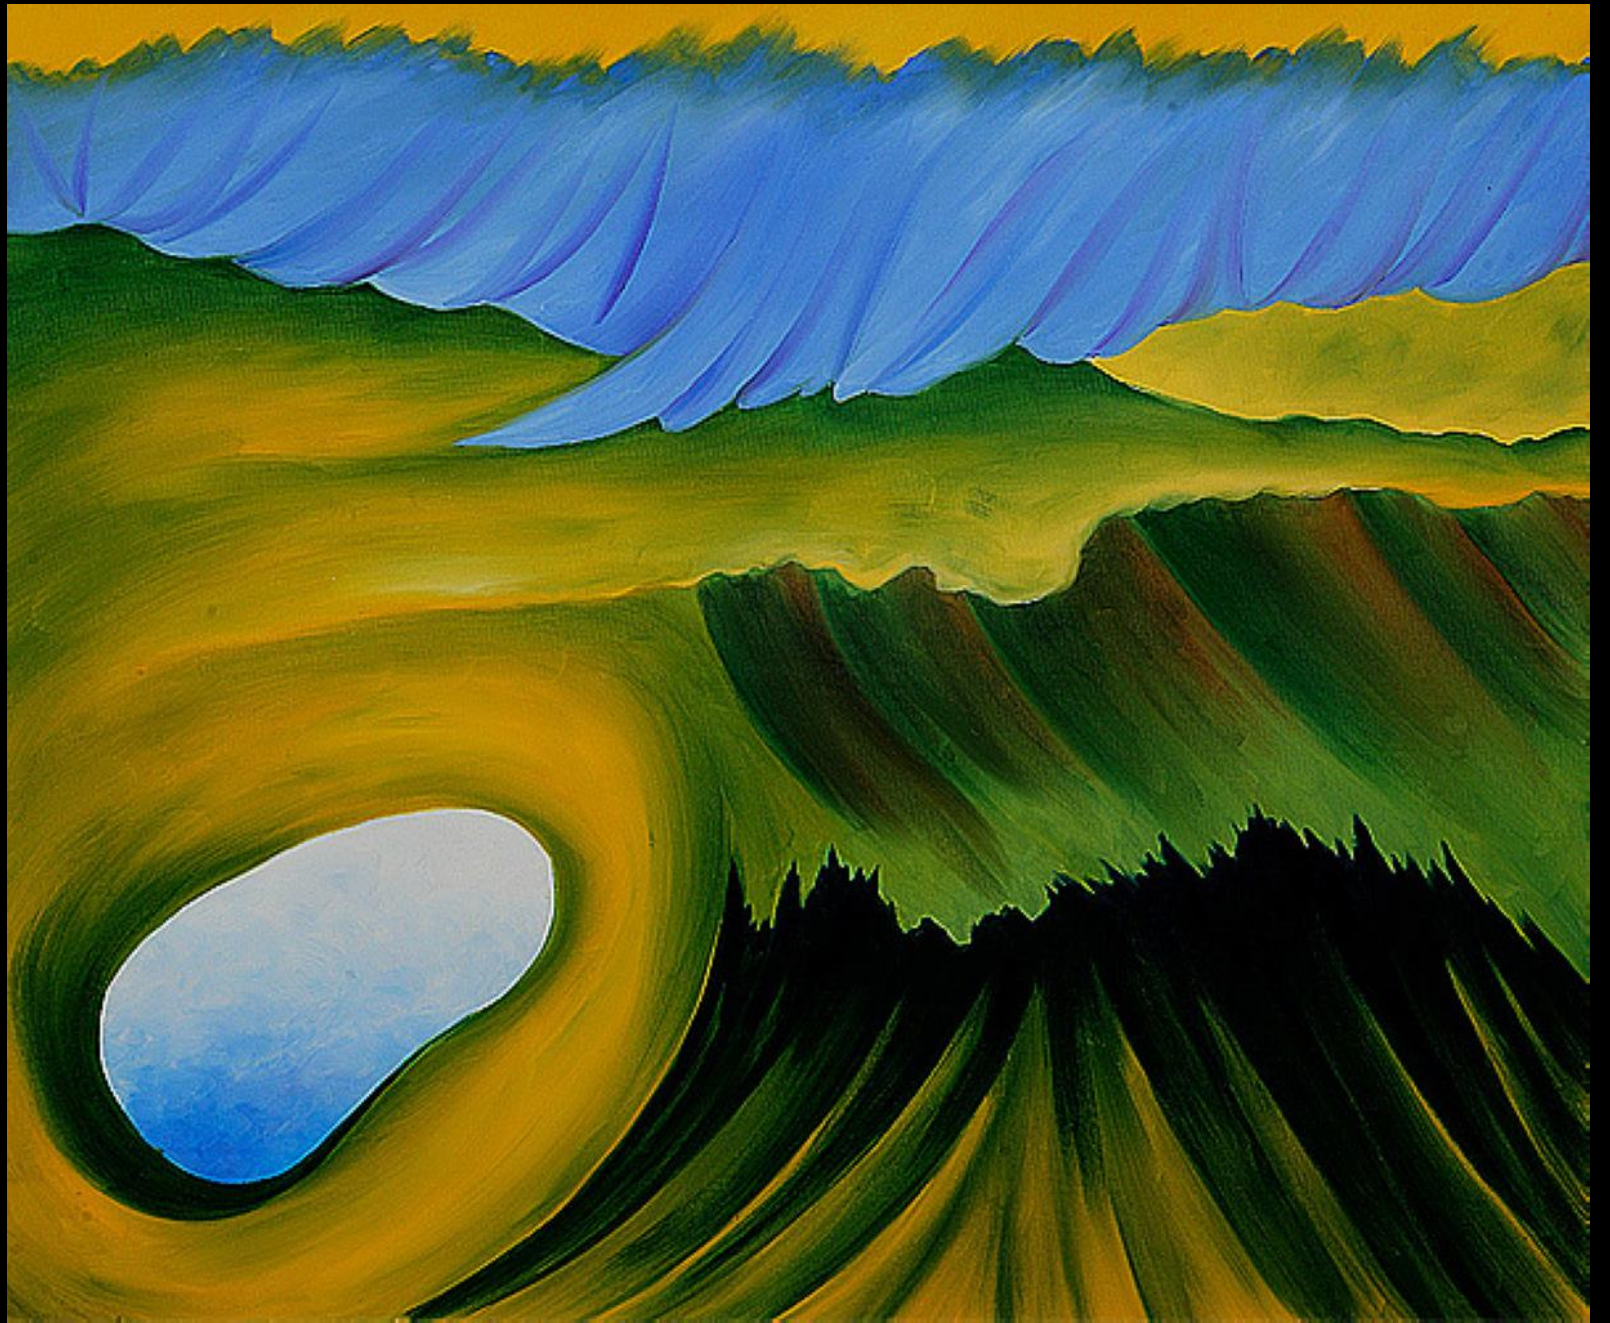

Georgia O'keefe

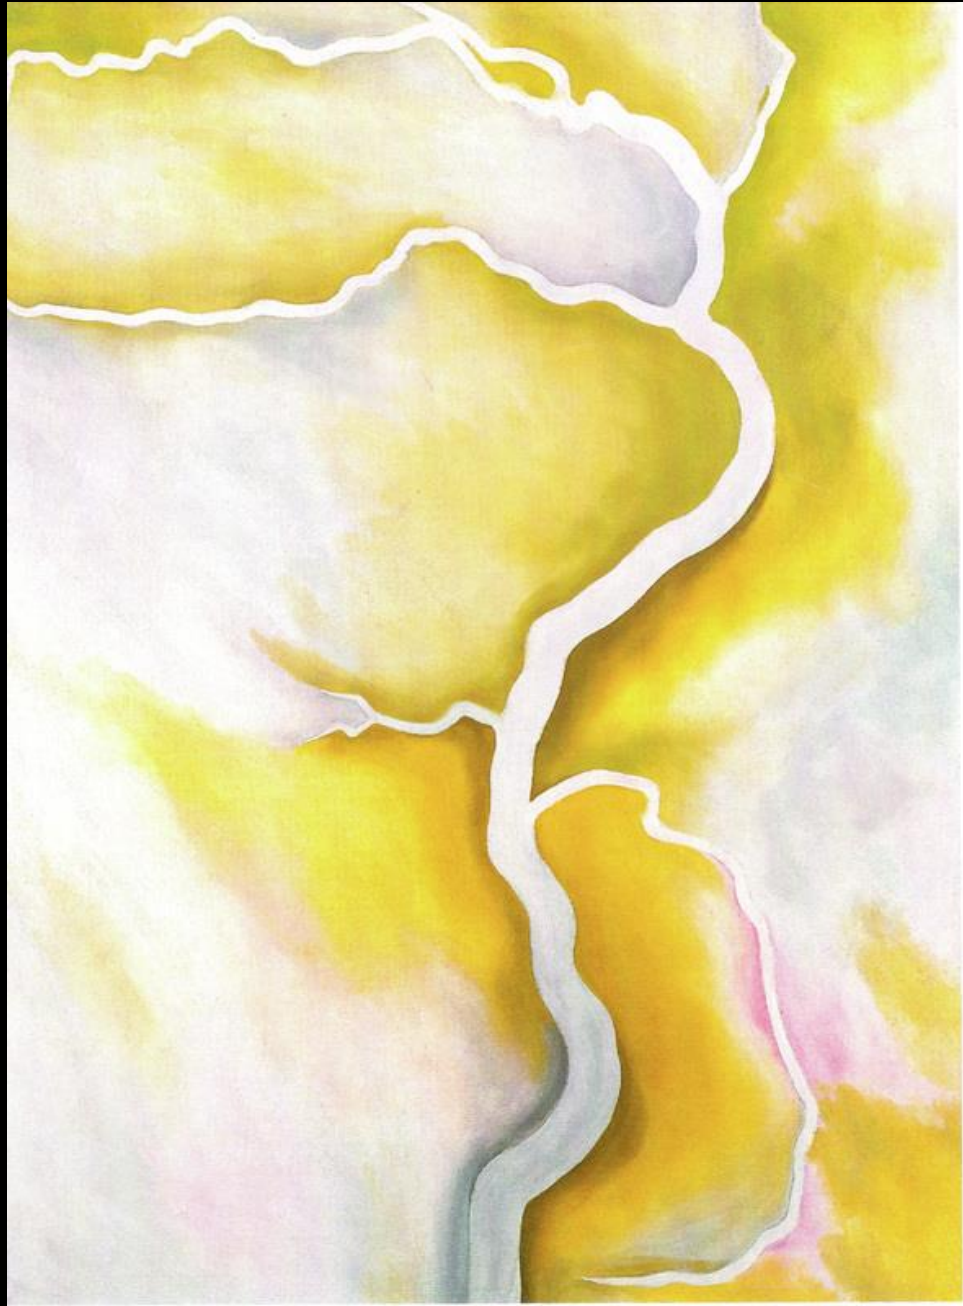

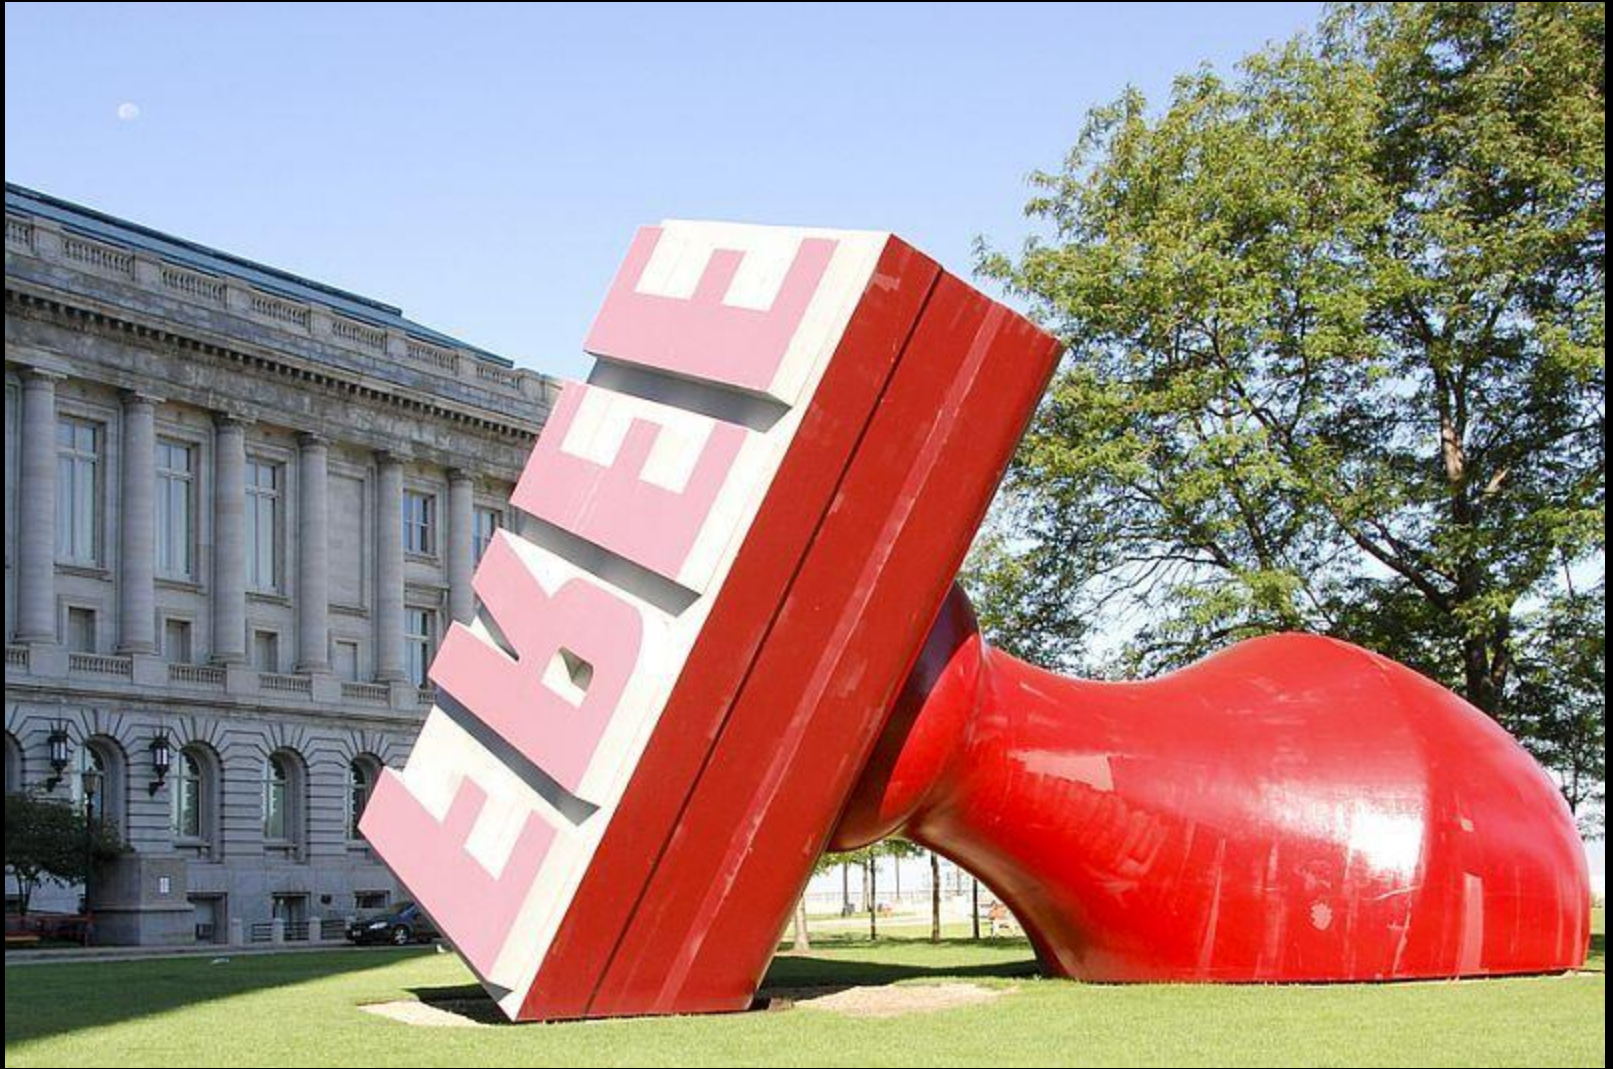

Claes Oldenburg

© Claes Oldenburg & Coosje van Bruggen

CHRISTOPHER BOFOLLI

